For the past 20 years McCollister's Chicago has hosted a Chili Cook-off for our Customers

1st place – Linda Vigliotti
2nd place – Chivon Johnson
3rd place – Lisa Boucher

Congratulations to our winners and to everyone who helped make this another memorable Chili Cook-off for our customers.

Fat Tuesday February 17th, 2015 in the Land of the Frozen Chosen-McCollister's Chicago held the "20th Annual Chili Cook-off"

With brightly colored tee-shirts, white toothed grins and some good old fashioned N'Orleans music the employees at Chicago brought their Mardi-gras themed Chili Cook-Off to life. They treated our clients and guests to a plethora of 18 chili entries, made from scratch, by our own staff, their family members and a few daring customers.

Chilies ranged from mild and saucy to hot and spicy.

Tums were provided for those who could not take the heat.

With puckered faces, hot breath and pursed lips, our intrepid panel of customer judges worked their way through pints of pintos, helpings of jalapenos, bunches of beans, tons of tomatoes, mounds of meat and splashes of seasoning; all mingling in chalices of chili, to determine the best recipe for 2015.

After red faces were blanched, watery eyes were wiped and runny noses stifled, the top 3 chilies were announced.
