McCollister's is excited about our expanded entertainment fleet. This past year we supported bands on tour around the country who performed at some amazing venues. The bands included Oar, Alt j, Group Love, Switchfoot, Lecrae, Kari Jobe, and Britt Nicole. These shipments were served by our drivers Jim Dyal, Ernesto Blanco, Jonathan McCallum, Matt Gartrell and Dave Caribou. Because of their outstanding efforts, we had a successful year with these tours. We thank all of our drivers for their hard work. Our drivers go above and beyond to ensure things are unloaded and reloaded properly and in a timely matter so they can move the equipment to the next show. Our team has done an excellent job meeting the needs of the tour managers and built lasting relationships with the crews and the bands! Some of the tours ran as long as four months, and we even covered a couple shows in Canada. Please check out our facebook page for upcoming tour dates so you can see when these bands may be in a city near you. To find out more on what we are doing, send us an email and don't forget to share your stories with us #behindthescenes #withtheband.
